Visit of Pakistan President to India

2225. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BI-RLA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state what are the major issues discussed with the President of Pakistan during his recent visit to the country stating the areas on which an accord has been reached and the nature of the differences in respect of the issues on which no agreement could be arriv edat

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI EDUARDO FALE-IRO): A number of issues, such as Pakistan's acquisition of sophisticated weapons, its involvement with terrorism in Punjab, control of drug trafficking and smuggling, bilateral trade, etc., came up during visit of President Zia in February, 1987. The question of arriving at agreements on these issues was not a subject during this visit. In consonance with our desire for normalisation of relations with Pakistan, it is proposed to continue the dialogue with Pakistan.
